THE DOUBLE-EDGED SWORD OF DATA

Sometimes we get caught up thinking data and science are the be all and end all – it can give us a lot of answers sure, but the devil is in the detail. How are we interpreting data wrong? And why do we have trouble communicating it?

Presenters/Producers: Cheyne Anderson & Ellen Leabeater

Speakers:

Jon Wardle – Faculty of Health, University of Technology Sydney

Simon Knight – Lecturer, Connected Intelligence Centre, UTS

Mark Moritz – Associate Professor, Department of Anthropology, Ohio State University
